The A75 road from Carlisle and the south to Stranraer and the Ferry Ports for Ireland passes through Dumfries & Galloway. We are approximately 20 minutes drive from this main road, and easy to find with all roads clearly signposted.

If travelling from Carlisle follow the A75 westwards, and at the western end of Castle Douglas by-pass (identified by a roundabout soon followed by an overhead bridge), continue on the A75 for approx. 2½ miles then turn left on the A711 (signed for Kirkcudbright - 5 miles).

After passing over Tongland Bridge and entering Kirkcudbright, turn right on the A755 which crosses the bridge near the harbour, and approximately ¼ mile after bridge turn left on the B727 (signed Borgue).

Follow this road along the coast for approx. $3\frac{3}{4}$ miles and turn left (signed Brighthouse Bay) and after a further $\frac{3}{4}$ mile turn left again for Ross Bay.

Senwick Glebe is $\frac{1}{2}$ mile along this road on the left. Turn into the drive across the cattle grid. We look forward to meeting you.
